

THE HULME GRAMMAR
SCHOOL FOR GIRLS.
RECORD OF THE OLD
GIRLS' ASSOCIATION,
OLDHAM. = = 1918-1919.

THE OLD GIRLS' ASSOCIATION.

CONSTITUTION AND RULES.

The Society shall be called "The Old Girls' Association of the Oldham Hulme Grammar School for Girls."

The President shall be the acting Head Mistress of the School, and the Secretary shall be one of the members of the School Staff.

The affairs of the Association shall be conducted by a Committee consisting of the President, the Secretary, the Treasurer, and sixteen representative members, of whom one shall be elected by the Staff, fourteen shall be elected by the Old Girls, and one by the members of Form Upper VI. Of the fourteen Old Girls' representatives two shall retire annually in rotation, but they shall be eligible for re-election, and the election shall take place at the December meeting.

Members who, without good cause assigned, absent themselves from Committee meetings for two consecutive years, shall be considered to have resigned, and their places shall be filled up at the December meeting at the end of the second year during which they were absent from the meetings.

Full members (i.e., girls who are able to attend the meetings) shall pay a yearly subscription of 2/-. Country members, who are not eligible to attend meetings, shall pay 1/-. Both subscriptions will include the "Record" and all notices of meetings.

All subscriptions are due in December, and may be paid at the meeting. No notices will be sent to any member whose subscription is two years in arrears.

There shall be two meetings of the Association each year—on the Tuesday preceding the School's Annual Entertainment, which is a fixture for the first Wednesday in December, and on the first Thursday in July, with the exception that in alternate years a picnic on the first Saturday in July shall take the place of the summer meeting at School.

During the last week in November each member shall send to the Secretary at least one warm, useful garment for the poor. (Old clothes are also welcome.)

The "Record" shall be issued during the Spring Term, and shall be sent to all members who have paid their subscriptions.

OFFICERS FOR 1919.

President—Miss Clark.

Secretary and Treasurer—Miss Evington.

Committee (in order of election)

Mrs. Orme (M. Fletcher)	V. Phillips
M. Kershaw	M. Smith
M. Johnson	E. Macpherson
P. Rye	Mrs. Garfitt (L. Johnson)
S. Rothwell	G. Wilkinson
Mrs. Watson (B. Holt)	Mrs. Wood (E. Johnson)
Mrs. Gill (W. Leech)	M. Wilde

Representative of the Staff—Miss Dale.

Representative of Form VI.—M. Schofield.

We hardly dared to hope this time last year that this would be our Peace number, but so it is, and our hearts are filled with thankfulness to Almighty God, and with gratitude to our brave sailors and soldiers who endured so much for our sakes. We had hoped to issue a special number with contributions from members who have interesting war experiences to relate. But the cost of production is still so high that we must again condense. The cost of the Record in 1912 was £6 10s. Od.; it had risen to £18 last year.

Our Birthday gift to the School last year realised £11, and was given to the East Lancashire Homes for disabled soldiers. This year, the School's 24th birthday, our contributions are for our sailors to whose ceaseless vigilance we owe more than we shall ever know. The British and Foreign Sailors' Society through their President are appealing to the women of the Empire to raise the sum of £100,000 to build a Sailors' Rest and Boys' Hostel in the Port of London as a permanent memorial to those splendid men of both Sea Services who have lost their lives in the service of their Country. And what better memorial could be devised than an institution so useful to those who come after them? And as this is to be our Thank-offering we will not limit the gift to the twenty-four pennies, but will leave each member to give such expression to her gratitude as her means and other calls allow. Contributions should be sent to Miss Evington any time up to the summer meeting in July.

Now that the war is over we must think of our Honours Board. We do not want one name left out. So if any member knows of any Old Girl whose name has not yet appeared in the lists published in the Record, will she please send it to the Secretary with particulars of her work. All are qualified who have done direct war work such as V.A.D., W.A.A.C., &c., or who by taking posts in banks or offices have released men for the army, and are ready to relinquish these posts when the men come back. Remember that it is better to send in names two or three times than not at all.

Now surely we might revive our Games Clubs. Who will volunteer to join cricket and hockey clubs and to play in tennis tournaments?

An urgent appeal for probationers has reached us from Miss Hutchinson, Matron and Superintendent of Nurses at the Coventry and Warwickshire Hospital. She says: "The nursing profession is suffering badly at the present time for want of students. Of course I may be not altogether unbiassed, but in my opinion there is hardly a profession more fitting for girls as it tends to bring out all their womanly instincts, and the life is a very happy one."

The salaries for the Probationers for the three years are respectively £12, £18, £24, but the subject is coming up for revision shortly and the scale will probably be raised. A Staff Nurse begins at £45 and a Sister at £50, rising to £60. There is a liberal amount of free time—four hours a day, one day a week, and three weeks' holiday a year. Indoor uniform is provided after the trial month.

The additions to the album this year are:—Cyril, son of Mrs. Walton (Miss Foxall); Marjorie, daughter of Mrs. Wolstencroft (G. Dearden); Mrs. Few (Miss Briggs) and her three children; Mrs. Macnee (Miss Gellatly) and her daughter Mhoire; Joan, Norma and Raymond, children of Mrs. Williamson (D. Mayall). Group of the picnic at Stoneswood, July 1918.

In regard to the Old Girls' badges I am sorry to announce that the makers cannot see any hope of supplying them for some time to come.

MEETINGS IN 1918.

The Summer Meeting took place on Saturday, July 6th, and it was an unexpected treat. As it was not possible to arrange the usual picnic, Susan Rothwell most kindly invited us to spend the afternoon in her garden at Delph. Members of the committee went early in the day to help our hostess; the rest of us followed by special car to Grains Bar and walked from there to Stoneswood. After tea on the lawn some played tennis, others wandered round the garden—an ideal place for a picnic. Before we left, Major Fairnie took two very good photographs of the party grouped among the ferns on the rockery. Our warm thanks are due to Susan for a most delightful meeting at which every arrangement for our comfort and enjoyment was so kindly thought of, and so charmingly carried out.

Those present were:—Miss Evington, Miss Mitchell, Miss Sawyer, Miss Shaw, M. Ainscouth, M. Bladd, E. Bodden, B. Brierley, W. and M. Broadbent, S. Brooks, Mrs. Buckley (S. Hall), Mrs. Calder (B. Mellor), L. Caldwell, D. and L. Carter, M. Cartwright, Mrs. Cromar (V. Shaw), K. Eyres, Mrs. Fairnie (M. Rothwell), E. Farrar, P. Fletcher, O. Garfitt, M. Gaunt, Mrs. Hall (M. Ashworth), M. Hartley, E. Henthorne, L. Holroyd, D. Jackson, H. Johnson, M. Kershaw, D. Knott, L. Lecomber, D. Lees, M. Letham, M. Lewis, A. Lowe, J. Macpherson, D. Mellor, G. Mellor, I. Mills, W. Mottram, V. Phillips, P. Radburn, S. Rothwell, P. Rye, A. and M. Smith, S. Stock, E. Tetlow, D. Turner, Mrs. Watson (B. Holt), D. Wild, M. Wilde, A. Winterbottom, Mrs. Wood (E. Johnson), E. and M. Wrigley, K. Wynne.

The Winter Meeting on Saturday, December 7th was also a pleasant surprise. We had announced the usual war-time meeting, a Saturday afternoon working party. Then came the Armistice, but there was not time to make other plans, so at the meeting we laid aside our work and talked, played games, danced, sang, for very lightness of heart. But we did not forget our poorer friends in Hulme, for the Old Girls sent, as they always do, many very useful garments, and those brought to be made at the meeting were finished and sent in later. But the chief event of the afternoon was the surprise—the performance of scenes from “She Stoops to Conquer” given by girls from the present Forms IV. and LV., and acted with a spirit which was not surpassed when they repeated the performance at the concert on January 22nd.

The following signed the book:—Miss Clark, Miss Crompton, Miss Schenzinger, Miss Evington, Mrs. Airey (S. Fletcher), M. Bladd, B. Brierley, E. Bodden, S. Brooks, Mrs. Buckley (S. Hall), D. Carter, M. Cartwright, A. Colson, Mrs. Eastwood (B. Potter), P. Fletcher, Mrs. Garfitt (L. Johnson), F. Hanson, M. Hartley, D. Jackson, H. and M. Johnson, M. Kershaw, S. Laycock, Mrs. Lees (A. Watson), A. Lees, M. Lewis, A. Lowe, E. Macpherson, Jean and Janet Macpherson, M. Mathews, P. Mills, W. Mottram, Mrs. Robinson (H. Clayton), S. Rothwell, P. Rye, M. Schofield, E. Smith, Mrs. Stephenson (H. Marcroft), Mrs. Stott (L. Hall), F. Thorpe, D. Turner, E. Wardle, Mrs. Watson (B. Holt), M. Wilde, C. Wilde, G. Wilkinson, A. Winterbottom, Mrs. Wolstencroft (G. Dearden), Mrs. Wood (E. Johnson), G. Wood, K. Wynne, E. York.

Mrs. Wood and Margaret Wilde were elected as members of the Committee.

NOTES.

Cyril S. Walton, son of Mrs. Walton (Miss Foxall) has won an open Scholarship to Rugby of £100 a year for the period of his school life. He was one of the first three chosen out of 116 candidates.

Miss Sawyer has returned to her educational missionary work in Poona.

Marjorie Martland is one of the five surgeons on the staff of the Scottish Women's Unit at Royaumont to whom has been awarded the French Croix de Guerre with star. She has been in France two years. In recommending the awards Marshal Petain issued a regimental order stating that these doctors "have lavished at the Scottish Hospital, both at the advanced camp at Villers-Cotterets and also at Royaumont their skill and devotion to the French and Allied wounded under repeated bombardment." The hospital at Villers-Cotterets where Marjorie was second in command was very heavily shelled in the advance in May when the enemy was at Soissons only five miles away. Only with the greatest difficulty was the hospital evacuated without loss.

Margaret Maw has received honourable mention in recognition of her services as Quartermaster at Woodfield (V.A.D. Hospital) since the outbreak of the war. To both we offer our warm congratulations. Of Bertha Martland's silver badge we are also intensely proud, but with a loving sympathy seeing that it is given for disablement in her country's service.

Madge Newton joined the W.R.A.F. in July, 1918, and was posted to a large Aircraft Repair Depôt near Sheffield. She acted chiefly as Quartermaster and officer of sports. In August she was transferred to Salisbury.

Winifred Cooper joined the Q.M.A.A.C. and went to France in September. She was sent home on sick leave, and is now Kindergarten Mistress at the Eustace Street Council School, Chadderton.

Marjorie Brearley is also in the Q.M.A.A.C. as Sergeant, training recruits at Chadderton.

Lillian Neild has gained the diploma of the C.M.B. (Central Midwives' Board), and is now working as a district nurse at Woolwich. She is very happy in her work which she describes as thrilling. She says that nurses are urgently needed, and that it is impossible to estimate the amount of suffering that can be prevented if only this kind of nursing is not left in the hands of unskilled, ignorant women. Will this appeal meet with a response from any of our demobilised V.A.Ds.?

Mrs. Lomas (Henrietta Taylor) has been appointed travelling secretary and lecturer for the Education Committee of the Y.W.C.A. She visits centres where women and girls are employed, such as W.A.A.C. or W.R.N.S. camps.

May Johnson is now a qualified masseuse of the Institute of Massage and Remedial Gymnastics.

Margaret Wilde is studying Medicine at the Manchester University and has passed her first M.B. examination.

Elsie Lawton has been nursing at the Military Hospital, Walton-on-Thames. The work among the permanently disabled at the Star and Garter Home where she was previously is so exhausting that nurses are not allowed to stay longer than six months.

Doris Turner was appointed dispenser to the Military Hospital, Cheadle Hulme.

Maud Bentley has been nursing at Rouen.

Mary Hodgson is now secretary to the curator of the Museum at the Manchester University.

Sarah (Sallie) Brooks is at the Electrical Testing Station, Ardwick, under the Manchester Corporation.

Doris Warhurst is now teaching at the High School, Macclesfield.

Dorothy Neild was, for a time, staff nurse at the County Hospital, Bedford. She is now at a Convalescent Home at Baguley, Cheshire.

Annie Wood, after a short term of nursing at Abbey Hills Road V.A.D. Hospital, went to a large Military Hospital at Bagthorpe, Nottingham. She is now demobilised.

Mary Smith is nursing at the Clevedon Convalescent Hospital, Somerset.

Ada Wormald is a sister at the Hospital, Wakefield.

Alice Kent has left the Westinghouse Works to return to teaching. She has been appointed Mathematical Mistress at the High School, Sale.

Constance Wilde is one of the two winners of the Shuttleworth Economic Scholarship of £45 tenable for one year at the Manchester University. She also won the Cobden Club prize (a book) for Political Economy.

Mary Schofield is governess to the children of Lady Renshaw, in London.

Eliza Schofield is in a bank at Southport.

Phyllis Robinson is now at Barclay's Bank at Luton.

Dorothy Mellodew is at the Union Bank, Royton.

Arline Ingham is in the Manchester and Liverpool District Bank.

Dorothy Andrew is a clerk at Spencer's Works, Hollinwood.

Ruth Mellor is in the London City and Midland Bank, Union Street.

Mary Jackson is in her Father's Office.

Helena Garforth is working for a preliminary examination with a view to either medicine or dentistry.

Jessie Hartley has passed the entrance examination of the Manchester Education Committee's School of Ladies' Tailors and Dressmakers, and has begun work there.

Rhoda Gartside is teaching at Marsden Council School; Doris Fry at Delph; Winifred Kirkman at Watersheddings; Hilda Schofield at Coldhurst Church School; Hilda Taylor at St. Thomas', Redcliffe; Florence Hanson is teaching shorthand at Rochdale.

K. Eyres is at the Ripon Training College; L. Carter at Hull; L. Lecomber and D. Lees at Bingley; F. Kershaw and M. Lawton at Bangor; M. Butterfield and F. Nutter at Portsmouth; Florence Whitehead is to go to Bingley in September; Kathleen Hilton is studying at the Oldham School of Art.

Phyllis Mills is a clerk in the offices of Thomas Mellodew & Co. Ltd., Moorside.

Dorothy Ashworth is the secretary of the Moorfield Spinning Co. She has started a company of Girl Guides in which Hilda Taylor is her lieutenant.

Helen Lee is doing agricultural work in Kent.
