

THE HULME GRAMMAR
SCHOOL FOR GIRLS.
RECORD OF THE OLD
GIRLS' ASSOCIATION,
OLDHAM. = = 1921=1922.

THE OLD GIRLS' ASSOCIATION.

CONSTITUTION AND RULES.

The Society shall be called The Old Girls' Association of the Oldham Hulme Grammar School for Girls.

The President shall be the acting Head Mistress of the School, and the Secretary shall be one of the members of the School Staff.

The affairs of the Association shall be conducted by a Committee consisting of the President, the Secretary, the Treasurer, and sixteen representative members, of whom one shall be elected by the Staff, fourteen shall be elected by the Old Girls, and one by the members of Form Upper VI. Of the fourteen Old Girls' representatives two shall retire annually in rotation, but they shall be eligible for re-election, and the election shall take place at the December meeting.

Members who, without good cause assigned, absent themselves from Committee meetings for two consecutive years shall be considered to have resigned, and their places shall be filled up at the December meeting at the end of the second year during which they were absent from the meetings.

Full members (i.e., girls who are able to attend the meetings) shall pay a yearly subscription of 3/-. Country members, who are not eligible to attend meetings, shall pay 2/-. Both subscriptions will include the Record and all notices of meetings.

All subscriptions are due in December, and may be paid at the meeting. No notices will be sent to any member whose subscription is two years in arrears.

There shall be two meetings of the Association each year— at the beginning of December, and on the first Thursday in July, with the exception that in alternate years a picnic on the first Saturday in July shall take the place of the summer meeting at School.

During the last week in November each member shall send to the Secretary at least one warm, useful garment for the poor. (Clothing that has been worn, if it is in good condition is also acceptable.)

The Record shall be issued during the Spring Term, and shall be sent to all members who have paid their subscriptions.

OFFICERS FOR 1922.

President—Miss Clark.

Secretary and Treasurer—Miss Evington.

Committee (in order of election).

| | |
|---------------------------|-----------------------------|
| V. Phillips | Mrs. Orme (M. Fletcher) |
| M. Smith | Mrs. Dunkerley (M. Kershaw) |
| E. Macpherson | M. Johnson |
| Mrs. Garfitt (L. Johnson) | Mrs. Jackson (P. Rye) |
| G. Wilkinson | G. Taylor |
| Mrs. Wood (E. Johnson) | S. Rothwell |
| M. Wilde | Mrs. Watson (B. Holt) |

Representative of the Staff—Miss Dale.

Representative of Form VI.—H. Coop.

There is little to report this year. The Secretary has only to confirm, or rather to explain the increase of sixpence all round in the subscription. The explanation is not far to seek. The increased cost of everything, especially of the Record had brought us not on, but unpleasantly near the rocks, so the Committee concluded that the members would rather pay a little more than see any curtailment in the magazine.

Will any Old Girl with leisure and an interest in games offer to take the place of Marjorie Parkes as officer in a patrol of Girl Guides? The vacancy occurs because Marjorie is leaving Oldham. Her successor should be one who, like her, will stick to her post and who is willing to put her own pleasure on one side at times. Work of this kind, if it is well done, is sure to mean some self-sacrifice but it is well worth it.

Badges, price five shillings, may be had on application to Miss Evington.

MEETINGS IN 1921.

The picnic to Knutsford. There is always a little whoop of delight when picnics are mentioned. Last year's was a new departure. We made a pilgrimage, but a pilgrimage "new style" in motor coaches, as little was to be hoped from the railway companies, to "Cranford," Mrs. Gaskell's country, the home of "Miss Matty," and "Wives and Daughters."

We left the Paragon Office, King Street, at 1-15 p.m. on July 2nd, going by way of Manchester and Altrincham, and alighted at the King's Coffee House at about 3 p.m. The party then dispersed as they chose, some to walk on the Heath, some to haunt the old curiosity shops, some to visit Mrs. Gaskell's grave in the Brook Lane Chapel burying ground, others to view the Gaskell Memorial Buildings comprising library, institute and whatever can promote the education or recreation of the members. Some went to discover for themselves Miss Matty's shop, Dr. Gibson's house, the Rose and Crown Inn—a good example of the black and white houses of Cheshire—the George Hotel, the famous old coaching inn, where the county balls always took place. Knutsford is full of interest for those who know where to seek it.

We met for tea at the King's Coffee House, so named because quotations from Ruskin's "King's Treasuries" are inscribed on its outer walls. All were charmed with the pretty room in which tea was served, the daintily laid tables—it might have been a banquet—and the many thoughtful arrangements made for our comfort, among others, the privilege of resting in the rock garden which is not generally open to visitors.

Susan Rothwell brought for the occasion a most delicious cake; she started a little competition to guess its weight, and raised a goodly sum, enough to defray all the incidental expenses of the day such as gratuities to waitresses.

Our sincere thanks are offered to Miss Kerly's old friend Mrs. Hall of the King's Coffee House. She returned from the Degree Ceremony at Owen's College just in time to see us off.

Many of the party may not know the history of the parcel which she handed to Miss Evington at the last moment; it was a box weighing quite five pounds of home-made peppermint creams intended for distribution among the party on the way home, but owing to the noise of the starting engine and the hurry of leaving, the purpose of the parcel was not understood and Miss Evington, failing to trace the rightful owner, sent it back to Mrs. Hall. Then of course came the explanation and, alas! the Old Girls had missed a treat!

The return through Mobberley, Wilmslow and Heaton Moor was even prettier than the outward journey. The general opinion was that it was the best picnic we had ever had, though the same verdict has been passed on many previous ones!

Those present were:—Miss Evington, Miss Keane, Miss Laybourne, Miss Mitchell, Miss W. Mitchell, Miss Shaw, A. Ainsworth, Mrs. Airey (S. Fletcher), A. Ashton, M. Batty, D. Boardman, E. Bodden, C. Caldwell, Mrs. Cromar (V. Shaw), Mrs. Eastwood (B. Potter), Mrs. Garfitt (L. Johnson),

O. Garfitt, K. Eyres, E. Hamilton, M. Holden, M. Horrobin, D. Jackson, Mrs. Jackson (P. Rye), H. and M. Johnson, B. Leach, L. Lecomber, D. Lees, M. Lewis, J. and E. Macpherson, M. Mallandain, M. Mellodew, I. Mills, Mrs. Millington (S. Lees), M. Milne, S. Rothwell, J. Rye, A. and M. Smith, D. Starkie, S. Stoek, G. Taylor, M. Tetlow, G. Thompson, E. Wardle, Mrs. Watson (B. Holt), N. Wild, M. and P. Wilde, G. Wilkinson, A. Winterbottom, Mrs. Wolstencroft (G. Dearden), Mrs. Wood (E. Johnson), A. Wood, J. Wood, K. Wynne.

At the Winter meeting on December 8th, about a hundred members were present.

Olive Garfitt had rehearsed a short play "The Spare Room," the parts being taken by S. Rothwell, M. Smith, J. Rye, M. Parkyn, G. Thompson. It illustrated in most amusing fashion the embarrassment of a newly married couple when several of their loving relatives chose the same moment to visit them in their charming little flat. All parts were well acted and the spectators had only one ground of complaint—that it was all too short. The play was followed by a short musical programme; songs by E. Macpherson, F. Nutter and Mrs. Leeson (P. Lansdell). The rest of the evening was occupied with dancing and gossip and the election of the two new Committee members. S. Rothwell and Mrs. Watson were re-elected.

The following signed the visitors' book: - Miss Clark, Miss Dale, Miss Evington, Miss Laidler, Miss Laybourne, Miss Mitchell, Miss Shaw, M. and B. Ainscouth, Mrs. Arey (S. Fletcher), A. Ashton, M. Batty, L. Braddock, E. Bright, M. Broadbent, C. Caldwell, M. Cartwright, A. Chadderton, H. Coop, E. Cooper, E. Crompton, A. Duncan, Mrs. Eastwood (B. Potter), M. Everington, K. Eyres, E. Farrar, P. Fielding, Mrs. Garfitt (L. Johnson), S. Green, M. Hallsworth, E. Hamilton, D. Hargreaves, M. and J. Hartley, E. Hasty, M. Higgs, Mrs. Hilton (H. Whittaker), K. Hilton, H. Holden, M. Holden, M. Horrobin, E. Hutchinson, D. Jackson, Mrs. Jackson (P. Rye), F. Jackson, H. and M. Johnson, F. Kershaw, Elsie Lawton, Edna Lawton, S. Laycock, L. Lecomber, Mrs. Lees (A. Watson), D. Lees, Mrs. Leeson (P. Lansdell), S. Lindley, D. Lord, A. Lowe, J. and E. Macpherson, M. Mallandain, M. Mathews, Mrs. Millington (S. Lees), M. Mellodew, I. Mills, Mrs. Mills (M. Brown), W. Mottram, F. Nutter, Mrs. Robinson (H. Clayton), S. Rothwell, Mrs. Rowe (B. Fletcher), J. Rye, Mally Schofield, Marion Schofield, V. Scott, A. Seddon, D. Smith, A. and M. Smith, E. Smith, K. Spencer, G. Taylor, G. and M. Thompson, A. Turner, D. Turner, E. Wardle, Mrs. Watson (B. Holt), Mrs. Watson (F. Simpson), F. Whitehead, H. Whittaker, N. Wild, M. P. and C. Wilde, G. Wilkinson, A. Winterbottom, Mrs. Wolstencroft (G. Dearden), Mrs. Wood (E. Johnson), A. Wood, J. Wood, G. Wood, M. Wood.

GAMES.

No report of games has come in. The Captain, Gladys Thompson, would be exceedingly glad to receive the names of any who can be relied on to play either hockey or tennis.

NOTES.

Miss Adams is now teaching History at King Edward's High School for Girls, Birmingham.

Miss McHardy, having finished her medical course in London, has been appointed House Surgeon at the Bradford Infirmary, and will take up her duties in April.

Miss Alexander is teaching at the Fairfield High School, formerly the Moravian School.

Miss Crompton, after completing her training at Miss Elsie Fogerty's School of Dramatic Art, has been retained on the staff.

Miss M. Richards is now History Mistress at Preston Park High School.

Miss W. Shaw has returned to Ireland and is teaching in a school near Belfast.

Miss Sawyer has left India, and is visiting her brother in Vancouver.

Alice Sergeant went to India in 1917 as second Inspector of Education in the Madras Presidency—a large area with nine districts. Girls' education is in a very backward state and the schools are widely scattered. For a time she was sent to lecture in History at the Queen Mary's College during the illness of the Principal. In April 1920 she was appointed Chief Inspector.

Eugenia Cooper graduated M.B., Ch.B. in July 1921. She has been appointed to the Leech Fellowship in Medicine, and is doing research work in Histology.

Ada Neild went to America in October 1920 to study methods of teaching there, having received from the Board of Education a scholarship for the purpose. She passed the examination for the Master's Degree in Education, and was among the first of the women students to be awarded a degree of any kind at Harvard University. She was appointed History Mistress at the Hulme

Girls' Grammar School in September 1921. As most of her old schoolfellows know, she already held the M.A. (History) of Manchester and of London, the London University 'Teachers' Diploma, and had twelve years' experience of teaching, seven at the Central Foundation School, London, and five at the Bedford High School.

Margaret Wilde has passed her third M.B. Examination, Part I.

May Johnson, who is also at the Manchester Medical School, was placed third in the examinations in her year with 92 per cent. marks for Anatomy.

Elsie Wardle has been elected President of the National Council of the Association of Women Pharmacists of Great Britain.

Dora Hudson has been appointed History Mistress at Bedford High School.

Edna Lees has succeeded Miss Andrews as History Mistress at Chapel Allerton High School, Leeds.

Mildred Cartwright gained in 1920 the Combined Diploma (Cooking, Laundry and Housewifery) in Domestic Science at the Manchester Training College of Domestic Economy, and taught for a time at the Littlewood Central and Textile School, and at one evening class at Rochdale.

Helena Garforth passed the Manchester University entrance examination in July 1920, and began work at the Dental Hospital in October. Last year she passed the first part of the second L.D.S.

Winifred Cooper went in September 1920 to teach in a boys' school at Pietermaritzburg, Natal. She coached two boys in French and Mathematics for an army examination. They passed so brilliantly that the examiners congratulated the "master" who had prepared them.

Eva Hutchinson was appointed in September Assistant Lecturer in English at the Avery Hill Training College, London.

Alice Haigh is now Head Mistress of the County High School, West Kirby.

Marion Mathews has been appointed Head Mistress of the Central School, Blackburn. She is one of the youngest women to hold so important an appointment.

Janet McVean is Domestic Science Mistress at the Bournemouth High School.

Lillian Neild has passed examinations which qualify her as a teacher of midwifery.

Dorothy Neild is at the Princess Mary's Children's Hospital for Surgical Tuberculosis, Margate.

Florence Heap is now Head Teacher at Nuttal, Nottingham.

Mrs. Lane (A. Lees) is teaching at the Waterloo Higher Standard Centre. Ellen Bright has returned to work at the Freehold School.

Winifred Mottram spent three months last year in a French family in Brest to perfect herself in the language. She is now teaching, chiefly French, at Moston Council School. S. Laycock is at Delph Council School. M. Butterfield, P. Fielding and E. Little are at Werneth, A. Duncan is at Alexandra Road where she specialises in Geography and takes Standard VII. L. Carter is at Chadderton.

Hannah Gartside takes drill and games at Waterloo Higher Standard Centre. She has been asked to play for the Ladies' Lancashire County Hockey Team. I. Kay is at the same school teaching chiefly English.

May McVean is at the Strasburg University studying French and German.

Margaret Weston has passed the entrance examination which admits her as a student at St. Hugh's College, Oxford.

Helen Whittaker and Dorothy Hargreaves who left school last July, have been students in Science and History respectively at Manchester University since October. On the result of the Joint Entrance Scholarship Examination of the Cambridge Women's College Helen has just been offered a vacancy at both Girton and Newnham. She has chosen Newnham.

Marjorie Ogden is at St. Hugh's College, Oxford, working for the Honours Degree in History.

Hilda Stott is working for the Higher Froebel Certificate at the Bedford Kindergarten Training College.

Dora Heys is at Avery Hill Training College and Hilda Wrigley at Warrington.

J. Buckley is taking the Needlework Course at the School of Domestic Science, Manchester.

Ethel Smith is Senior Typist at the War Pensions Committee, Oldham.

Mrs. Mann (G. Millington) has gone to live in Toronto, her husband having been given a shore appointment there.
