

Paper 2: Writing

EITHER

1. In the passage, the writer explains that Frankie’s day began in the worst possible way - twice. We know that the first way involved Frankie removing his cat - dead rat in mouth - from his bedroom in the middle of the night. But what about the second bad start to his day?

Write another short chapter for this novel, in which we find out what else happened to make Frankie’s day begin in “the worst possible way.” Try to make your writing interesting and enjoyable to read.

OR

2. Write a detailed description or story involving EITHER:

- A frightening place

Or

- A frightening animal

OR

3. Write an account of a time when you, or someone you know, showed courage. Your account may be real or imagined.

You are advised to plan your writing first.

TOTAL = 25 marks